

2017

Illinois Aviation Professional of the Year

Illinois Aviation Professional of the Year

- Aeronautics will be presenting the award to an individual for distinguished service to the Illinois State Aviation System for the first time at the Fall 2017 conference.
- Nominations of this award may be made to the Director of the Division of Aeronautics by any recognized Illinois airport official, local or Federal government official, airport consultancy, industry partner or Aeronautics staff.
- All nominations must be received by Aeronautics no later than close of business July 31, 2017.

Illinois Aviation Professional of the Year

- Qualities and attributes that should be taken into consideration when nominating an Illinois Aviation Professional of the Year should include, but not be limited to expertise in: airport management; airport construction and maintenance; airport planning, environment and design; airport and aviation safety; Illinois aviation business enhancements, etc.
- To nominate an individual for the Illinois Aviation Professional of the Year award, please download a nomination form from the IDOT website, complete and return the information section.

Illinois Aviation Professional of the Year

- Please use the narrative to describe how this nominee has been active during the previous year and has made a contribution to the Illinois State Aviation System.
- Award nominations will only be accepted via the electronic nomination form and must be sent to the attention of the Director of the Division of Aeronautics.
- If you have any questions, please contact the Director of the Division of Aeronautics for additional information.

Illinois Aviation Professional of the Year

- Active employees of the Illinois Department of Transportation, Division of Aeronautics are not eligible for the award.

Illinois Aviation Professional of the Year