ILLINOIS VALLEY REGIONAL PORT DISTRICT

The Illinois Valley Regional Port District is located in North-Central Illinois. The Port District boundaries consist of Putnam County and the townships of LaSalle, Peru, Utica, Eden and Dimmick in LaSalle County and Hall, Selby and Leppertown townships in Bureau County.

Port District Biography

The Port District is strategically located in North-Central Illinois. One of its key advantages is having interstate 80, one of the nation’s most important freight corridors cross through the district within miles of the Illinois River. Additionally, being in Northcentral Illinois there is an abundance of agriculture production that takes place that utilizes the river. The district has a robust network of state and U.S highways that provide access to river facilities. Included in the highway system is Interstate 39 which is part of an international interstate system stretching from Winnipeg, Canada, to the Gulf of Mexico.

CAPITAL NEEDS

The Illinois Valley Port District does not own or operate any terminal facilities. If the port district were to construct a terminal a major investment would be required. Depending on the type of terminal, the cost of construction could range from a couple million dollars to tens of millions of dollars.
