Washington County: Illinois 177 closure begins Sept. 8

IRVINGTON – The Illinois Department of Transportation today announced that a culvert replacement on Illinois 177 between Illinois 127 and U.S. 51 in Washington County will require a full closure starting, weather permitting, at 7 a.m., Sunday, Sept. 8. The roadway is scheduled to reopen by 7 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 15.

Motorists should follow the marked detour, which will utilize Illinois 127 and U.S. 51 to direct traffic onto Interstate 64.

Drivers are urged to remain alert while traveling the marked detour throughout construction. Drivers should reduce speed, obey all construction signage and refrain from using mobile devices while driving the detour route.
